PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN OF GIDDINGS-LOVEJOY MISSION STATEMENT

In keeping with the Purpose of Presbyterian Women (bold italics), the PWCT of Giddings-Lovejoy has adopted the following mission statement:

PW Purpose:

Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to:

Nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study,

by promoting the Horizons Bible study, by encouraging personal daily devotions, and by encouraging corporate worship and study.

Support the mission of the Church worldwide, by the "Mission Yearbook for Prayer and Study" and other mission resources, by supporting the Celebration Giving programs of PW.

Work for justice and peace,

by raising the level of consciousness concerning issues of humanity with special emphasis on women and children, by promoting a commitment to peacemaking, and by focusing on the efforts of the United Nations to establish a peaceful global community;

Build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and witnesses to the promise of God's Kingdom, by providing leadership opportunities at all levels, and by encouraging an awareness of the plight of those who are disenfranchised by society.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN'S SYMBOL AND ITS MEANING

Forgiven and freed by grace through faith, the central figure stands in praise.

Rooted in faith, the trio of women emerges. The outline of the central figure forms a cross. We are Presbyterian women, engrafted in Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. It is no longer we who live, but Christ who lives in us.

The right figure holds a book to guide her reading, praying, or meditating.

The left figure reaches out to care for others, as she shares, nurtures, and heals. The circle represents the church worldwide where women offer their gifts and talents in the midst of the global community.

The uplifted arms of the central figure reach out to embrace a just peace for the world. The relationship between the three figures depicts lives of wholeness rather than turmoil.

The three women have no distinct features and represent all women. The shapes surrounding them express energy, strength, and openness.

Our name, Presbyterian Women, ties us to our denomination. The Bible resembles the Bible depicted in the PC (USA) Seal.

Guided by our Purpose, we witness to the reality of God's realm.

MODERATOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Presbyterian Women of Giddings-Lovejoy,

The joy of collaboration is one of the many things that the organization of Presbyterian Women has taught me. Joining hearts and minds together, we as women can accomplish far more than we ever dreamed possible. As it says in Ecclesiastes 4:9, "Two are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. If one person falls, the other can reach out and help." (NLT) Thus, it is that Susan Buchanan and I agreed to serve as co-moderators of the Presbyterian Women of Giddings-Lovejoy. "I'll do it if you do it," we each said to the other. "Sounds like fun."

This present moment is a very good time to claim one's identity as a Presbyterian Woman. St. Louis hosting the Triennial P.W. Churchwide Gathering August 8-11, 2024. Coming together for several days with women from across the country and the world to sing, worship, learn, pray and work for justice renews our spirits and inspires us to ministries of advocacy. If you would like to volunteer to be part of the movement of hospitality welcoming women coming to the gathering, please let members of the Coordinating Team know, and we will forward your name on to the planning committee.

Some of the most creative, indefatigable Christian leaders I have ever met are the women who have chosen to become vitally involved in nurturing the spiritual lives of other women through the vehicle of Presbyterian Women. If your church does not have a formal Presbyterian Women's organization, and you want to know how to become more accountable and connected to the organization of P.W., talk to your cluster communicator. Each church in our presbytery is part of a regional cluster group and you can find the name of your communicator on our website. In the fall and spring, the P.W. of Giddings-Lovejoy hosts gatherings in local churches throughout presbytery offering women the chance to forge new friendships, worship, learn and re-discover the power of community to lift us out of isolation and despair.

One reason I love being part of P.W. is the chance to engage with other women in study and interpretation of God's Word through participation in the yearly Horizons Bible Study. Written by women scholars, these Biblical studies explore the experiences of women who bump up against the barriers of prejudice and patriarchy prohibiting them from being full participants in the realm of God and reveal God's gracious provision for them. Through conversations with other women in Horizons Bible Study, I find myself challenged, encouraged and empowered to discover new perspectives on the meaning of scripture. An exciting way to participate in the Horizons Bible Study is to join the presbytery wide study held on ZOOM beginning in this fall.

Susan and I believe each one of you is important and has unique gifts to share to enhance the life of Presbyterian Women in Giddings-Lovejoy. Our fellowship and community will thrive because you have decided join in celebrating the gifts of women through your involvement in Presbyterian Women.

Yours in Christ,

Janet Riley and Susan Buchanan
